DEATH & JUDGEMENT

The Christian's attitude while awaiting God's judgement is primarily one of hope, which in Catholic teaching, is a looking forward to the final triumph of perfect justice. This brings with it the happiness of heaven. But this hope, this lively hope, does not remove all uncertainty on man's part. Though justice & mercy co-exist in God, the point at which they meet escapes man's understanding. We know that punishment is just & right, inasmuch as the God who established the moral order cannot be indifferent to its observance. He cannot therefore ordain that obedience & disobedience to it should ultimately come to the same thing, and we know that virtue must finally be rewarded by happiness.

*Day of wrath & terror looming,
Heaven & earth to ash consuming –
Seer's & Psalmist's true foredooming*

*Ah, what agony of trembling,
When the Judge, mankind assembling
Probeth all beyond dissembling!*

*Hear the trumpet-blast resounding,
Through all tombs of earth rebounding,
Summons to the judgement sounding.*

*Life & death will stand confounded,
Seeing man, of clay compounded,
Rise to hear his doom propounded.*

*Open then, with all recorded,
Lies the book, from whence awarded,
Doom shall pass, with deed accorded.*

*Then the Judge will sit, revealing
Every hidden thought and feeling,
Unto each requital dealing.*

*What shall wretched I be crying,
To what friend for succour flying,
When the just in fear are sighing?*

*Ruler dread, thy proclamation
Frees the chosen from damnation;
Fount of love, grant me salvation.*

*Remember that my lost condition
Caused, dear Lord, thy mortal mission;
Spare my soul that day's perdition.*

*Thou with weary steps has sought me,
Crucified has dearly bought me;
Have they pains no profit brought me?*

*Righteous judge of retribution,
Grant the gift of absolution
Ere the day of restitution.*

*Shame & grief my soul oppressing,
I bewail my life's transgressing,
Hear me, Lord, my sins confessing.*

*Thou didst heed the thief's petition,
& the Magdalene's contrition –
Hope for me, too, of remission!*

*Though my prayers deserve thy spurning,
Yet, thy eyes of pity turning,
Save me from eternal burning.*

*With the sheep of thy salvation
On thy right hand be my station
At that awful separation.*

*When the heavy malediction
Smites the damned with hell's affliction,
Call me to thy benediction.*

*Crushed to dust, I, suppliant bending,
(All my heart contrition rending)
Crave thy care when life is ending.*

*On that day of tearful wonder,
When the tomb is rent asunder,
Guilty man to doom shall waken;
Leave him not, dear Lord, forsaken.*

*Lord of mercy, Jesus blest,
Grant them everlasting rest. Amen.*
